

The TABLE of the Dues appertaining to the Good Town of EDINBURGH, payable by all Persons Traffiquing at the Haven and Port of Leith, Collected by the Masters of Ships, Barques, or Boats, (Importing Goods) from the Merchants Receivers of the saids Goods, and payed by the saids Masters to the Good Town of EDINBURGH: And for the more effectual payment wherof, the Merchant or Master of ilk Ship, or Barque, is to consign a Pound for the value of the Duty of the Goods Imported, or Exported, before the Vessel begin to Liver, or Un-Load.

	lib. s. d.
Imprimis , All Tuns, as French and Spanish Wines or all sorts, Vinegar, or Drinking-Beer, &c. or all Goods in Puntheons, or the bulk thereof, payeth by a Burges Free-Man of Edinburgh, The forefaid Wines or Goods appertaining to an Un-free-man, payeth :	0-3-4
All Lasts of Lint, Hemp, Iron, Victuals, Pitch, Tarr, Salt-Beef, Tallow, &c. :	0-6-8
Ring, or other Barrel'd-Fish, Apples, Onions, or other Goods, the Last or Chalder payeth by a Burges Free-Man of Edinburgh, &c. Item, ilk Burges and Free-Man to pay for two Chalder of Meal, The forefaids Lasts or Chalder of Goods payeth by an Un-free-Man :	0-5-4
All Packs of Cloath, Dry-Ware-Trees, containing Mercery-Wares, or other Groffer-Wares, as Stra-Wald, conform to the Bulk, as Tunage	0-3-4
The Un-free-Man is to pay	0-6-8
For every Hundred of dry Fish, the Free-Man Burges of Edinburgh is to pay	0-3-4
The Un-free-man is to pay	0-6-8
All Oxen or Kine appertaining to a Burges Free-Man of Edinburgh, landing at Leith, payes for each Ox or Cow	0-1-0
The Stranger Un-free-man payes for the Ox or Cow	0-2-0
The Fathom of Burn-wood belonging to a Burges Free-Man of Edinburgh, payeth	0-1-0
And ilk Fathom belonging to an Un-free-man, payeth	0-2-0
All Timber, as Boards, Dails, Trees, Double and Single Roof, Spars, Double Knappel, Dansick-Knappel, Norway-Knappel, Girth-Stings, and Skows, Waincot, &c. All Free-Men Burgeses of Edinburgh payeth one of the hundred, being six score, or the value thereof in Money, or the same to be drawn by the Collectors, at the Merchants option.	0-1-0
And for the Timber forefaid, the Un-free-man payeth two of each hundred, or the value thereof in Money.	0-1-0
All Un-free-men bringing in Salt, Corn, Apples, or Onions, and all other Goods measured by Metts, pays a Sels-boll, viz. one before the Mast, and another behind: Being half Loadened, one Boll, and if whole Loadened, two Bolls.	0-1-0
Item, All Drag-Boats, Haddow-Boats, Yoals going off to the Road to Ships, or to Fish Oysters, payes ilk time they go out	0-1-0
Item, For ilk Thousand Tyle, a Burges payes	0-6-8
An Un-free-man payes	0-13-4
Also, each Ship or Barque coming to Leith Harbour, is to pay for her Beckonage per Tun	0-0-6

The Table of the Shore-Dues for Commodities of the Product of this Kingdom.

Imprimis , ilk Chalder of Scots Salt :	0-4-0
For ilk Chalder of Smiddy-Coals. &c. :	0-4-0
For ilk Chalder of great Coals, or Deal, is to pay :	0-1-0
For ilk Deal of Peets :	0-0-6
For ilk Chalder of Lyme :	0-1-0
Ilk Stone-Boat is to pay according to her Burden, as Coals pays per Chalder or Deal, as is above expressed.	0-2-0
Item, For ilk thousand Sclaits :	0-6-8
For ilk Last of Hydes, accounting ten Daiker to the Last	0-10-0
For ilk Coard of Skins, containing six hundred Flemish	0-10-0

	lib. s. d.
The above-mentioned is Un-free-mens Dues.
For ilk Pack of Coney-Skins, Lamb-Skins, Otter-Skins, Fulmart-Skins, and such like, conform to the Bulk or Coard	0-10-0
For ilk 4 Corner'd Sea-Pack of Wool, going to the North, for a Burges to pay :	0-3-4
For ilk Pack transported by an Un-free-man, to pay :	0-6-8
For ilk Horse-Pack, for a Free-man to pay :	0-1-8
For ilk Horse-Pack, for an Un-free-man to pay :	0-3-4
For ilk Pack of Wool to France or Holland :	0-2-0
Grouping of any Ship, Barque, or Boat, or part thereof, Item, Good Town one Gold penny, conform to of, there is due to the : s. per Tun the Value of the Bargain, viz. : one Gold penny for More, There is due to the Good Town South-Leith, each Ship, Barque, or Boat Built in North or conform to her Burden, 3. s. Scots per Tun.
Item, ilk Ferry-Boat is due to pay Inwards four pennies Scots, and Outwards four pennies Scots; and for their Birth to ly at the Shore 12. pennies Scots, to the effect good order may be kept, and ilk Boat get her just turn.
As also, the Anchorage of all Ships, Barques, or Crears, conform to use and wont, according to their Burden, viz.
All Ships, Barques, &c. that takes in Ballast, are to pay for ilk Tun :	0-8-0
Also, all Barques or Ships casting their Ballasts upon the Shore, or out of any Barque to another, payes per Tun :	0-4-0
Likewise, the Ferry-Boat that takes in any Commodities, the Master is to be comptable for the Shore-dues, otherwise not to take the same for Importing or Exporting, as is above expressed.
And if any Skipper of Ship, or Barque, or Boat, take in Ballast, without making his agreement first, to pay 5. pound toties quoties, by and attour their punishment by the Magistrate.

The Table of Dues appertaining to the Good Town of Edinburgh, payable by all manner of Persons for the Goods after-mentioned; Transported by Land from Leith to the Countrey.

Imprimis , For the Butt of all Spanish Wines :	0-6-0
Item, For the Hogs-head or Puncheon of all Wines :	0-3-0
Item, For the Cart-draught of Iron, Pitch and Tar, Pot-Ashes, Lint, Hemp, Soap, Oyl, or any other Merchandable Goods, transported by Carts, &c. :	0-6-0
Item, The Sled-draught of the forefaids Goods :	0-5-0
Item, The Back-burden of the forefaids Goods :	0-0-6
Item, Each Barrel of Beer :	0-0-6
Item, For ilk Load of Corn or Salt, carried by Man or Woman	0-0-2
Item, For ilk Horse-Load of Corn :	0-0-6
Item, ilk hundred Dails :	0-6-0
Item, ilk hundred Double-Dails :	0-12-0
Item, ilk hundred Single-Trees :	0-6-0
Item, It is declared, that four Tun of Ships Provisions is allowed for a Ship of an hundred Tuns of Burden; and so forth proportionally, which is declared free of Duty; and if there be more Provision put aboard, the Master is to pay for ilk Tun, as is above-written.
Item, ilk Ship, Barque, or Boat, is to pay for Primage due to the Trinity-Houle at Leith, per Tun :	0-1-0

